PRESS RELEASE

Berwyn House Fire Under Investigation

Berwyn, IL (May 2017) On May 05, 2017, Berwyn Police and Fire Fighters responded to 3309 S. Home Avenue for a report of smoke and fire emitting from the house. When Police Officers arrived they observed heavy smoke and fire emitting from the roof and several windows.

Berwyn Fire Fighters, assisted by several neighboring Fire Departments worked diligently at extinguishing the blaze. Once the fire was extinguished, Fire Fighters were able to conduct an interior search of the residence at which time they discovered the body of one deceased male.

The residence is owned by John Anderson, 64 years old. Neither the Police nor the Fire Fighters are able to positively identify the victim of the fire at this time. Berwyn Fire Investigators assisted by the United States Fire Marshall are conducting the cause and origin of the fire. Berwyn Police Detectives are working collaboratively with the Fire investigators to determine the cause of death and the identity of the victim.
